

City Commissioner – District 3

Chloe Johnson

Chloe Johnson is a native Floridian and is the daughter of Reverend Dexter and Mrs. Teresa Johnson. She graduated from Morrow High School in Morrow, Georgia in 2006. In 2012, she moved back to Winter Garden, Florida, where she currently resides.

Chloe is the founder and CEO of I AM HER W.E.M. Inc., Their mission is to empower young girls and young women to believe in themselves, knowing that they are enough, and they matter. They do home visitations and spread cheer each week, along with other acts of kindness. Several events are held throughout the year honoring residents of all ages.

Chloe is also the co-founder and co-owner of Lyric's Lemonade, which her eleven (11) year old daughter, Lyric, is the founder.

She is an advocate for the East Winter Garden Community and is very passionate about the work she's involved in and being the voice for East Winter Garden. She serves as vice president of "One Winter Garden"; serves on the Board of Eight Waves Organization and the Orange County Safety and Task Force, with Mayor Jerry Demings.

Chloe is a very active member of New Inspiration Missionary Baptist Church of Winter Garden. She is Youth Director, working with the Choir and young ladies and women's dance ministries. She is faithful in her walk with the Lord and feels that her purpose is to be a shining light by serving others, being kind, and by being an example of Christ. She is an ambassador spreading the Good News.

She is married to Adelle Brunson, Jr. and they have four beautiful children, Londyn, Lyric, Logan, and Landyn.
